Only six weeks remain in the sojourn of the present Senior class in Fuller Seminary, and it is our desire to make the closing week of our seminary experience a significant one for each of us. Plans for the Senior Retreat are being finalized to include small group discussions with faculty members and one another, times of sharing of plans and experiences, and plenty of free time for fun, food and/or fellowship. Our Retreat will be incomplete without you, and your commencement week will be incomplete without our Retreat. The date: June 4 and 5. See your Senior class officers for details. RE
